Europe.

A RUINED GENERAL.

At the close of the battle of Sadowa, Marshal Benedek, the commander-in-chief, exclaimed, "All is lost but my life! Would to God I had lost that too!"

PROCLAMATION FROM THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA.

The following mournful proclamation has been issued by the Emperor Francis Joseph:

TO MY PEOPLES.—The heavy misfortune which has befallen my army at the North, notwithstanding its most heroic resistance to the enemy, the increased dangers thereby menacing the Fatherland, the calamities of war with which my beloved kingdom of Bohemia is being desolated, and which threaten other parts of my empire, and the painful and irreparable losses sustained by so many thousands of families among my subjects, have moved to its utmost core my heart, which beats with so warm and fatherly feeling for the good of my peoples. But the reliance which I expressed in my manifesto of the seventeenth of June—a reliance on your unalterable and faithful devotion and readiness for any self-sacrifice—a reliance on the courage of my army, which even misfortune cannot subdue—a reliance upon God and my good and sacred

LORD DERBY ON THE PEACE IN EUROPE.

The foregoing is a mere abstract of the very creditable and prudent speech of Lord Derby.—On the subject of the affairs on the Continent he made the following most important remarks:

Whatever may be the result of the present state of affairs on the Continent, I trust that the past policy of this country will not be so entirely departed from as that we shall refrain from taking an interest, in the independence of certain European States. I am sure that if the three great Powers, England, France, and Russia, are agreed, it will be in the interest of peace and to secure the independence of the lesser States. Without such agreement I am sure Europe will be the scene of frequent wars.

Lord Brougham was understood to express a hope that France and England would combine to secure a reduction in the enormous armies of the Continent.

right—this has not wavered for a single instant. I have addressed myself to the Emperor of the French respecting his good offices for bringing about an armistice with Italy. Not merely did the Emperor readily respond to my demand, but with the noble intention of preventing any further bloodshed, he even, of his own accord, offered to meditate with Prussia for a suspension of hostilities and for opening negotiations for peace. This effort I have accepted. I am prepared to make peace upon honorable conditions, in order to put an end to the bloodshed and ravages of war. But I will never sanction a treaty of peace by which the fundamental conditions of Austria's position as a great power would be shaken. Sooner than that this should be the case, I am resolved to carry on the war to the utmost extremity, and in this I am sure of my people's approval. All available troops are being concentrated, and the gaps in the ranks of the army are being filled up by the conscription which has been ordered, and the large enrollments of volunteers called to arms by the newly awakened spirit of patriotism. Austria has been severely visited by misfortune, but she is not humiliated or bowed down.

My peoples: Have confidence in your Emperor. The people of Austria have never showed themselves greater than in misfortune. I will follow the example of my forefathers, and will lead you on with determination, perseverance and unshaken confidence in God.

FRANCIS JOSEPH.

Given at my residence in the capital of Vienna, this 10th day of July, 1866.

Another Nail in the Radical Coffin.

It is a well-known physiological fact, that the human mind, individually or collectively, is more or less subject to mania, or monomania, the constant laboring at one idea making it the centre around which all other ideas must revolve. There are manias for murder, manias for burglary, manias for lying, manias for frauds, big and little, and, above all, manias for suicide, as illustrated in the case of a Frenchman who, within the past year, constructed a guillotine with such nicety of arrangement that in trying its efficiency he cut off his own head in somewhat less than the twinkling of an eye.

Now for the application. The Congress of the United States (?) on Monday passed over the President's veto a bill for the protection, feeding, and clothing of Southern negroes, made free as an incident in our late civil war—in other words, making the Government an immense eleemosynary institution, thinking thereby to secure popular approbation on the score of humanity. They did not consider the immense load of taxation already upon the backs of the people, nor did it enter into their heads that when too heavy a load is imposed it is very apt to be thrown off. Under a profession of philanthropy, the Radicals have passed this bill, voting millions of dollars, not out of their own pockets, but out of the pockets of the people, forgetting at the same time, that, although they desire to degrade the President, he is the only functionary to carry such law into execution—that without military force the law is a nonenity, and that the President, as Commander-in-chief of the army and navy, can at any time withdraw all the military support without which this Freedmen's Bureau bill is not worth the parchment on which it is engrossed.

This reckless squandering of the public money is a question for the consideration of the people who have to furnish it, and it is not difficult to see that in such case the nail in the Radical "coffin will be driven to the head.—National Intelligencer.

"THE GREAT ARSON."—The above title has been conferred on Sherman by an anonymous writer to the Mayor of Portland, who thus applies (very appropriately) the name of the crime to the criminal. This writer says that as fires flamed all around Sherman in his progress through the South, so now, that he is moving through the North, the same fatalities accompany him. It is claimed that retribution has decreed that this devastator of the South shall carry desolation, involuntarily, to the people who applauded his outrageous "march to the sea."—It is an awful conceit, yet a good thing on Sherman. When he hears of it it will probably spoil his dreams.

The remains of General Richard Henry Lee (father of Robert E. Lee) are to be removed from Georgia to Lexington, by order of the Virginia Legislature, and will be reinterred on the 19th of September next, on the occasion of the inauguration of the Washington statue.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. E. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

PROCLAMATION

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

In obedience to an Ordinance of the State Convention, ratified the 25th. day of June, 1866, entitled "An Ordinance submitting to the qualified voters of the State the ratification or rejection of the Constitution adopted by the Convention," I, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of North Carolina, hereby give notice that on THURSDAY, the SECOND day of AUGUST next, polls will be opened by the Sheriffs of the respective Counties, and kept open for three successive days, at the several election precincts in each and every County in the State, under the same rules and regulations as now exist for the election of members of the General Assembly; at which election all persons qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, may vote for or against the ratification of the same; those who wish a ratification of the Constitution voting, with a written or printed ticket, "RATIFICATION,"—those, of a contrary opinion, voting, with a written or printed ticket, "REJECTION." Sheriffs will observe the provisions of the Ordinance as to the duties thereby imposed.

In witness whereof His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, has hereto set his hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed.

(L. S.)

Done at the City of Raleigh, this the 2nd. day of July, A. D. 1866.

The District Convention.

The proceedings of the Convention for the Fourth District, held on yesterday in this City, will be found in another column. The Convention simply met to select two gentlemen, known to be ardent supporters of President Johnson's policy, friends of Constitutional liberty, and endorsers of the Philadelphia Convention, to represent the District in that body. The selection was made, as announced on yesterday, and the Convention, having no further business, adjourned. The entire District was represented.

But the editorial corpses (not corps) of the Radical organ, looking cadavorous and wobegone, were there in full force, of course to misrepresent and misstate its proceedings. That mendacious print says that the Convention was called under the auspices of secessionists of the Worth, Sentinel and Bragg school. That is quite a new school to us. It is certainly not of the Holden genus, which advocated secession,—the inherent right of a State to secede of her own accord, up to 1863 or '64. Holden and his school, every one knows, held, promulgated and defended this doctrine, up to a very late period, but now attempt to blind the Radicals, by denunciations of secessionists. The only secession school that we are aware of to which Gov. Worth, the Sentinel, and Gov. Bragg, can belong, is the school which has forever seceded from Holdenism, Radicalism and every other ism that opposes the Constitutional Union of the States. But neither Gov. Worth, nor Gov. Bragg, had any thing to do with calling the Convention.

Speaking of Judge Gilliam and Mr. Arrington, the Standard says: "We presume both these gentlemen are opposed to the "test oath" and to the proposed amendment to the Constitution under which Tennessee has been admitted." "We presume!" The Standard knows they are. We doubt if five men, out of the few who have taken the "test oath" in this State, approve of it as a proper test of loyalty, or believe that Congress had the right to pass it.—And certainly there are not 500 men in North Carolina, so degraded as to approve either of the Constitutional amendment, or of the abominable Tennessee cheat attempted to be palmed off upon the country as a legal endorsement of the new amendment.

But Mr. Josiah Turner, Jr., of Orange, was there, and that was enough to give the Ex-P. G. fits. The very sight of Mr. Turner makes him groan. Mr. Turner, of course, made a speech; it was a characteristic speech, and, as usual, whenever he sees or thinks of the Ex-P. G., he can but be forcibly reminded of secession—so he pitched in. Hence Democracy always gets a share, over the shoulders of the Ex-P. G. Yet Mr. Turner nominated Mr. W. Eaton, Jr., of Warren, one of the firmest and purest Democrats in the State, as a delegate. The Standard calls him "once a professed Democrat." Mr. Eaton, while on a visit to Washington, soon after the surrender, at the invitation of B. F. Moore, Esq., refused to endorse Mr. Holden as a suitable person for Provisional Governor. This accounts for the particular venom of the Ex-P. G. against Mr. Eaton.

The whole account of the Standard is one-sided, and designed to misrepresent both Mr. Turner, Gov. Bragg, and others. Mr. Turner proposed to suggest to the Convention for the State the name of Gov. Graham, as a delegate for the State at large. Gov. Bragg thought it going beyond the province of the Convention to designate any one for the State at large, as it was understood that duty would be attended to by others. For himself, he would say, he would be exceedingly glad to see Gov. Graham one of the number. The Standard's account makes a very different impression.

The attempt of the Ex-P. G. to slur the Chairman, Mr. Fuller, who presided with dignity and ability, and the Secretary, and others, needs no comment. We believe that no one in this region feels any concern at the quips or assertions of the Ex-P. G., or any of the corpse editorial of that paper.

Pardon of Hon. Geo. Davis.

We are gratified to learn, as we do from the New York Herald, of the 23rd, that the President has pardoned the Hon. George Davis, of this State, who was Attorney General of the Confederate States government at the time of its overthrow.

We hope, in a few days, to have the pleasure of announcing that other distinguished gentlemen in the State, equally worthy of the Executive clemency, have received it at the hands of Mr. Johnson.

IN A SPEECH in a public meeting in Petersburg, a few nights since, called for the purpose of taking steps to be represented in the Philadelphia Convention, Mr. A. M. Keiley stated that he had received a letter from a Senator of the United States, one of the ablest and most conspicuous members of the conservative party, in which he stated that no test would be demanded in that Convention, which any Southern man, sincerely desirous of a restoration of the Union, could not conscientiously sustain. We hav'nt a doubt of it. Only those who hope otherwise believe the contrary.

The National Union Convention.

Those of our friends who are disposed to entertain some apprehension, that the approaching Philadelphia Convention will be sought to be organized on the basis of the test-oath, will, we are morally certain, be agreeably disappointed. From none of the manifestoes that have been published in connection with the Convention, nor from any of the public utterances of prominent gentlemen at the North, who will take a leading part in its deliberations, is such an impression at all warrantable. It is the policy of those men, at the South particularly, who are opposed to the patriotic objects contemplated in the call of the Convention, and who, were agitation quieted and harmony restored to the country, would be without occupation and without the confidence of even their present co-workers in mischief, to frighten off representation, on the ground that the test-oath will be exacted as a preliminary thereto. They see in this uprising of the honest, conservative masses of the country, the hand-writing on the wall, which is to consign them to a merited infamy.

The call for the Convention settles its platform and the nature of the requirements that will be demanded. The invitation is extended to all those who approve of the restoration policy of President Johnson, as against the nefarious and degrading schemes of the Radicals. How absurd would be the effort to organize a national opposition to that pestilent faction upon a basis prescribed by the Radicals themselves! The gathering is simply a mass meeting of citizens of the different States, who are in favor of the immediate restoration of the Union, under the policy inaugurated by the President. It is intended to strengthen his position and to bring to his support, in the approaching elections, that aid, moral and political, that will secure the success of that policy. Those in the South who oppose the movement, by denunciation, attempted ridicule, or in any other shape, are enemies of the President, enemies of his policy, and the allies of Stevens and Summer,—and are worse men than either, in that they seek the ruin and degradation of the larger portion of their own neighbors and people!

"Well, Tennessee has been admitted without negro suffrage, and the other States will be admitted also, if they will do as Tennessee has done. Will North Carolina follow her example? Not unless the people will rise in their majesty and require their servants to do it.—Standard.

We intend to publish, as soon as we can, the proceedings of the Tennessee Legislature on this subject. It will be seen that Tennessee has not adopted the new amendment, in any legal or proper sense. Congress has admitted her representatives, and the President assents, though he condemns its particular action, because it is that much gained. But North Carolina will not follow her example. The people will rise in their might and put their veto upon the course of Tennessee. Gov. Holden could not, at the present time, carry 3000 votes in the State, upon that single issue. We predict that the people will not send five delegates to the next Legislature, pledged to vote for the new Constitutional amendment.

Gen Matt. W. Ransom.

We invite attention to the letter of Gen. Ransom, in another column, declining to allow the use of his name in connection with the office of Governor, at the present time. From what we knew of Gen. Ransom's desire, that the success of the friends of the President's policy in this State should not be jeopardied by internal divisions and dissensions, we were fully prepared for the patriotic determination announced in his card.

His letter is not only eloquent and admirable in diction, but it breathes the genuine spirit, and places its author on high ground. The people will not be apt, in the future, to forget either his eminent services in the past, or his present conciliatory and patriotic course.

THE BILL INTRODUCED by Mr. Poland, of Vermont, in the Senate of the United States, to which we made an allusion on yesterday, makes it lawful to plead in bar of any action of tort, committed during the late war, that the plaintiff was a rebel, or that he "obtained or sought a pardon for treason." It goes down to the lowest and vilest ruffian, who may have committed all the crimes provided against by law, and gives him impunity, provided the party whom he wronged was engaged in the "rebellion."

The Radical organ in this City,—the Raleigh Standard,—expresses the hope that "Congress will pass some act of this kind," and says that it is much needed in the South! "Whom the Gods wish to destroy they first make mad."—The Standard has made itself ridiculously famous,—it is determined to make itself infamous!

Election of Delegates.

Lest it should be forgotten, we would suggest to the Chairmen and Secretaries of the various District Conventions, which have appointed delegates to Philadelphia, to forward to the delegates appointed certificates of their election, signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and also duplicate certificates to the "Presiding officer of the National Union Convention, Philadelphia."

Public Meeting in Nash.

At a meeting of a portion of the people of Nash county, held at Hilliardston, on the 19th. inst., J. P. Hilliard was elected Chairman, and D. E. Sumner Secretary.

Resolutions were passed approving of the Philadelphia Convention, and recommending the Hon. A. H. Arrington and Hon. W. A. Graham as delegates.

The following delegates were appointed to the District Convention, viz: J. H. Avent, Thos. J. A. Cooper, H. G. Williams, W. H. Rowland and Dr. D. N. Sills.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

J. P. HILLIARD, Chairman.

D. E. SUMNER, Secretary.

General N. B. Forrest, Confederate States Army, is in Washington.

District Convention.

At a Convention of delegates representing the various Counties of the Fourth Congressional District of North Carolina, (for the purpose of appointing two delegates to represent said District in the proposed National Union Convention at Philadelphia,) held in the City of Raleigh, on Wednesday, the 25th inst.,

On motion of Hon. Thomas Bragg, Jones Fuller, Esq., of the county of Franklin, was called to the chair, and, on further motion of Henry G. Williams, Esq., of Nash, Seaton Gales, Esq., of Wake, was requested to act as Secretary.

Mr. Fuller, on taking the chair, addressed the Convention in some appropriate remarks, explanatory of its action.

The following delegates were found to be present from the Counties named, viz:

Orange.—Hon. Josiah Turner.

Chatham.—Thos. H. Haughton, J. G. Rencher, J. N. Clegg, A. H. Merritt, Elias Bryan, Thos. W. Womble and Sam'l R. Perry.

Wake.—Hon. Thos. Bragg, Hon. Chas. Manly, Jas. Litchford, sr., Jno. C. Palmer, J. M. Crenshaw, Peyton A. Dunn, Pulaski Cowper, R. H. Jones and Seaton Gales.

Johnston.—M. C. Richardson.

Granville.—Col. Jno. Wimbish, B. A. Capehart, R. A. Jenkins, Maj. W. B. Hughes.

Franklin.—W. F. Green, W. D. Coppedge, W. K. Davis, W. H. Littlejohn, Jones Fuller and W. H. Mitchell.

Warren.—J. B. Batchelor.

Nash.—Henry G. Williams.

The Hon. Thos. Bragg offered the following resolution, which was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That, in voting for delegates to represent the District in the Philadelphia Convention, the Counties of Wake, Chatham and Granville shall cast three votes each; the Counties of Johnston, Orange and Warren two votes each; and the Counties of Nash and Franklin one vote each,—according to the number of members of the House of Commons, to which each of the said Counties is entitled.

Whereupon, the Convention proceeded to vote for Delegates.

The Hon. Robert B. Gilliam, of Granville, and the Hon. A. H. Arrington, of Nash, having each received a majority of the whole number of votes cast, were declared duly elected; and, on motion, their election was subsequently made unanimous.

And then, on motion, the Convention adjourned.

JONES FULLER, Chairman.

SEATON GALES, Secretary.

Public Meeting in Chatham.

In pursuance of a call, a meeting was held in the Court House, at Pittsboro', on the 21st inst., when, on motion of Henry A. London, Esq., Gov. Rencher was called to the chair, and, on motion of Jno. Manning, Esq., W. L. Garrett, Esq., was requested to act as Secretary.

The Governor, on taking the chair, expressed his thanks for the compliment, but regretted that some other gentleman had not been selected. For many years, he said, he had been withdrawn from public speaking, and, therefore, feared he would not be able to do justice to the occasion. He felt that it was not necessary to review the past; its events were too recent and appalling to justify any retrospect, except so far as it might be available to explain and enforce our present duty. He was frank to admit that the future was not a bright one, and that clouds and difficulties hung upon it; but yet, it was not without its hopes, and we should strive like men who, having lost much, have still much to gain by a proper improvement of our present position.

He said the people of the South had always been devoted to the Constitution of the United States. It was their handiwork and their model of self government, and both in the Union and out of it they had always been its zealous and able advocates. They had always stood united in opposition to every encroachment made by sectional parties for sectional purposes.

It was their jealous love for that sacred instrument and their fear of its overthrow, which drove them to seek its safety, and their safety under it, in a separate national existence. Many of us were opposed to this dangerous and dreadful alternative. We thought it better to remain in the Union, and with the aid of the conservative men (and there are good men at the North) we could successfully resist these ceaseless attempts upon our Constitutional rights; that it was better

"To bear the ills we have,
Than fly to others we know not of."

But the people of the South thought otherwise, and here we are. It now appears that the fears of both those parties were but too well grounded.

The fears of the Union men have been realized with a vengeance, and it is equally certain that with a Radical Congress—such as we now have—and with a President to aid them, your property in slaves would have been taken by legislation, and if you had then had the manly courage to resist, the sword would have settled the question, as it has now done. But, he continued, tho' you may have lost every thing else your honor remains untarnished. Commencing the struggle without an army, without a navy, without a treasury, and shut out from the support or sympathy of foreign powers, you defended yourselves for four long years in this unequal war—this most cruel war; such a war as was never waged against savage tribes—where the country was laid desolate with fire as well as with the sword—your houses plundered, and then burned—provisions left for the support of your families either taken or destroyed, and your wives and children turned out hungry and houseless. But this dreadful war, thank God, is at an end, and we are brought to the important question, what is to be done? Submit to your situation in good faith. Submit to it with that manly firmness and courage, which marked your action in the hour of battle. Unite with the sound men of the North and do your duty, as of yore, to the Constitution and government of the United States. This is consistent with your honor, and is your only safety. He said, that when this war was waged for the "suppression of the rebellion," it was declared by the government of the United States to be for the restoration of the Union, and that the war being at an end the States should be restored to all their former political rights in the Union.—As soon, therefore, as the war ended the President of the United States prescribed the terms upon which the States should be restored to all their former rights in the Union. These terms were very onerous and very humiliating—the emancipation of our slaves and the repudiation of our debts. But as there was no alternative, the States at once complied, and by order of the President our Senators and Representatives were sent to Congress. A majority in both houses of Congress refused to admit them, and they were sent back. We are now told by this Radical party, in Congress, that our members cannot be admitted, unless we degrade ourselves by making our slaves our equals at the ballot box and in our courts of justice. Countless millions of money have been spent and oceans of blood spilt to force us back into the Union, and when thus forced back we are not allowed admission. The same Radical party has passed other important measures over the vetoes of the President, by which they assume to legislate for us in local matters which properly belong to the State legislatures. By such legislation this Congress is about to make the United States a great consolidated government, thereby obliterating the rights of the States and subjecting us to legislation that is foreign to us.—The President with noble and patriotic courage has resisted all such measures, declaring that all such local matters properly and exclusively belong to the States. In this he is supported by the whole of the Democratic party of the North and the conservative Republicans. These propose to hold a grand National Union Convention at Philadelphia, on the 14th. of August next, and invite us to unite with them. The object of this meeting is to send two delegates from this Congressional District. Let us do it and do it heartily and in good faith. Let us make an effort to save from further desecration the Constitution of the United States. The question of slavery having been removed from the arena of politics, other States become equally interested with us in preserving the rights of the States. The same dangerous powers, which are assumed to-day for the purpose of striking us down, will be wielded to-morrow to strike down another. Let us therefore unite with the good men of the North and West in common resistance to the common enemy.

The speech was chaste in its diction, and delivered with animation, and was received by the meeting with great applause.

On motion to appoint a committee of seven to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, the chair appointed Messrs. John H Haughton, M. Q. Waddell, J. G. Rencher, Jno. Manning, Jr., Samuel Perry, Elias Bryan, and H. Henderson.

The committee retired, and in a short time reported the following resolutions; which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the people of Chatham county, in common with the people of the whole South, are devoted, as they ever have been, to the constitution of the United States; which, under a fair construction of its powers, would secure both the rights of the States and the Union of the States. They have therefore ever been jealous of any change made in that sacred instrument; either by a formal amendment of its letter, or a false construction, by the Congress of the United States, of either its letter or its spirit.

Resolved, That these dangers are more apparent and alarming now than at any previous period. The present Congress of the United States seems to act as if there was no limitation whatever upon their powers; and, but for the manly and patriotic efforts of the President, there would be but little hope for the friends of constitutional liberty, either North or South.

Resolved, That the fortunes of war having denied to the people of the South a separate national existence, it becomes the duty of all good citizens to submit to this arbitrament of the sword, and to do their whole duty to the Constitution, and government of the United States, and to strive, with manly hope, to repair in the future the disasters and wrongs of the past.—They therefore hail, with pleasure, the proposed National Union Convention, to be held in Philadelphia the 1st of August next.

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting appoint 25 delegates to the District Convention, to be held in Raleigh, on the 25th inst., for the purpose of electing two delegates from this Congressional District, to the said National Union Convention.

Under the last resolution, the following delegates were appointed to the District Convention, viz:

Messrs. T. W. Womble, Sam'l Perry, E. H. Straughn, J. G. Rencher, A. H. Merritt, A. G. Headen, B. R. Bryan, Sam'l Crutchfield, R. G. Eubanks, Rob't Love, Thos. B. Harris, J. C. Stone, H. A. London, Jr., Junius A. Alston, R. C. Cotton, Elias Bryan, C. Justice, H. Memms, J. N. Clegg, T. L. Love, Thos. H. Haughton.

On motion of Jno. H. Haughton, Esq., the Chairman of the meeting was added to the number of delegates, with a request that he would attend.

On motion of Jno. Manning, Jr., a copy of the proceedings of this meeting was ordered to be sent to the Raleigh Sentinel, and, on motion of Mr. Manning, the meeting adjourned.

A. RENCHER, Chairman.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I notice that, about this time, the Railroad companies of the State seem to be reorganizing, appointing their officers and agents, and preparing, it is to be hoped, for heavy freights and remunerative profits. I notice, also, that the system of appointing, for each road, a competent engineer, to hold his position permanently in the corps of officers, is being adopted here in our own State. In selecting the men to fill the place of engineer, is the old policy, which has so long been a reproach to the State, to be persisted in? Is our own local talent, here at home, to be neglected and rejected, and some one from abroad to be sent for, simply because he is not one of our own people?

There is, in this very town, a gentleman of proficiency and eminence in his profession, of great experience, and of the highest moral character, personally respected and esteemed by all who know him, and yet I hear nothing of his being elected as engineer on any road in the State. I mean Major John C. Winder. Are his services and his experience, on other theatres, known to our people? I suppose not, as it is not fashionable in North Carolina for the reputation and high character of her citizens in other States, to be appreciated, or even known, here at home. Who is Major Winder? Is he an engineer in name only, without being one in fact? Look at his services and employments in other fields, and see what estimate has been put on him in other States. He was employed for some time on the New York and Erie Railroad; afterwards on the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad; then on the great Pacific Railroad, in Missouri. For four years, he was Principal Assistant Engineer on the New York and Croton Water Works, and made the survey for, and located, the Brooklyn Water Works. During the late civil war, he was constantly engaged as military engineer, and there was no officer of his grade in the Confederate army who had a higher reputation for science, industry, and reliability in his profession. These facts may not be generally known. Major Winder is a modest man. He does not sound the trumpet of his own praise. He has no organized coterie of friends, to urge his claims and push him forward. I venture the assertion that there is no man in the State (except, perhaps, Mr. Turner, who is a much older man,) who has had as much experience, on varied fields of operation, as Major Winder. In the private relations of life he is unexceptionable. Of uniform urbanity and politeness, he makes himself agreeable to all with whom his official employments bring him in contact.

JUSTICE.

[Our own knowledge of Major Winder, and the information in our possession, fully endorse the high character above given him by our correspondent. We know no man, personally, who is more deserving of a high position as an Engineer.—EDS. SENTINEL.]

Money cannot buy from a man his learning and talent, but it may bribe him to make a corrupt use of them.—Prentice.

ALAMANCE.—Judge Fowle has just held a special Court of Oyer and Terminer at Graham, Alamance County. Two important cases were disposed of:

In the case of Allen Foust, charged with assault with intent to commit a rape: Verdict guilty; judgment, four months imprisonment, one hour in pillory, 39 lashes 24th July, 39 in September, 39 in October, and 39 in November.

In the case of the State vs Milton Isely, charged with rape: Verdict guilty; judgment, to be hanged on Friday, August 3rd.

It is thus that our civil Courts and Judiciary are to become a terror to evil doers, and a praise to them that do well.

WELDON.—We glean the following items of local news from the State:

A colored U. S. soldier stopped at the Freedmen's Hotel, in that place, a few nights since, and, during the night, was robbed of $50 by some of his sable brethren.

On Tuesday, a negro man was found dead under rather peculiar circumstances. When found, he was lying beside a mule with a leather halter tied around his neck, with one end attached to the mule. Appearances indicate that he had been dragged some distance. It is supposed that he had placed the halter around his neck in order to carry it conveniently and had either fallen off or was thrown, and in that manner terminated his life.

A severe encounter took place, a few days since, on the farm of Col. N. M. Long, near the town, between Mr. J. J. Wood and a freedman, in which the latter was badly cut.

The store of Mr. Jno. Wynn was entered on Saturday night and robbed of money and merchandize to a considerable amount.

Verily, Weldon is improving.

AMALGAMATION.—The Williamston Expositor learns that there is a wedding on the tapis between a certain school marm, not a thousand miles from that place, and Peter Hassell, a colored individual of Williamston. She declares Peter to be one of the handsomest men she ever saw; has had his photograph taken and in all respects shows she is heels over-head in love with him. Pity that Peter should so throw himself away!

A correspondent of the Richmond Whig says that "North Carolina, through her sons, Sterling & Co., has issued the best school-books he has yet seen."

THE DEDICATION of the new and splendid E. M. Church, in Charlotte, took place on Sunday last. Revs. Mr. Shipp, Power, and other divines officiated,—the former preaching the dedication sermon.

A SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.—At 2 o' clock on the morning of July 21st, Hon. James S. Thorn, associate editor of the Troy Times, died of consumption. Two hours afterwards another associate editor of the same paper died at Lasingburg, from falling out of the third story of a hotel.

The editor of the Kansas Times says the revenue officer of his town is a man of the right stamp, although a little two-centsitive in some things.

An old minister enforced the necessity of difference of opinion by argument: "Now if everybody had been of my opinion, they would have all wanted my old woman." One of the deacons, who sat just behind him, responded: "Yes, and if everybody was of my opinion, nobody would have her."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

His Views on the Political Situation---His Opinions about the Negroes, Taxation, Reconstruction, etc..

In a recent conversation the President expressed his belief that the next House of Representatives would contain a majority of Conservative men disposed to support his policy towards the South. He also gave his views regarding negroes, taxation, the currency, and the basis of representation, which he denounced as a bugbear.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

[From the Boston Evening Commercial, July 21.]

A gentleman who had a free conversation with President Johnson, a short time since, informs us that he found him hopeful, in good spirits and unhesitating in the expression of his views. He does not anticipate anything like a Democratic majority in the next House of Representatives, though the number of representatives of that party will doubtless be considerably increased. But he does count confidently on the return of a majority of moderate men, who will be prepared to deal with the people of the South as all honorable and high minded nations deal with their antagonists after having beaten and disarmed them. And in districts and States where the Republican party fail to nominate such men, he thinks Democratic candidates will be likely, in a majority of cases, to be elected over Radicals.

The President is unhesitatingly of the opinion that the only safety of the nation lies in a generous and expansive plan of conciliation, and the longer this is delayed the more difficult will it be to bring the North and the South in a harmony. If the suspicious, tyrannical policy is too long pursued, the population of the South will become as hostile, in time, to the North as the people of Ireland are towards England, adding to this evil of hereditary and growing animosity an ability for revenge a hundred fold greater than Ireland possesses.

THE NEGROES.

In regard to them, the President says they will find work enough, and for many years to come probably better remuneration than any other class of agricultural labourers in the country. The competition of capitalists and land owners will insure good treatment and good pay for the planters. That there will be much disorder is to be expected; but there will be no more than there would be at the North, were the number of black labourers sufficiently numerous to enter into serious rivalry with the white labourers.

TAXATION.

The President is confident that nothing can be safely and permanently done in regard to restoring the currency, diminishing taxation and establishing the prosperity of the country on a sound and enduring basis until, representatives from all the States are present in Congress. The idea of legislating for one-third of the population of the country, and passing constitutional amendments without allowing them any voice in the matter, or paying any attention to their wishes, is full of danger to the future peace and welfare of the nation. They cannot be treated as a subjugated people or as vassal colonies without a germ of hatred being introduced, which will some day or other, though the time may be distant, develop mischief of the most serious character.

NO TREASON OR TRAITORS.

The President does not admit that he has been inconsistent. He is as much opposed to treason and traitors as ever he was, and for punishing them severely. But there is no treason and no traitors now. The enemy has fully and fairly surrendered and is powerless, and a foe thus situated should be magnanimously treated. A generous and self-reliant warrior always restores his disarmed enemy his sword and trusts his parole of honor.

FREEDOM FOR THE SOUTH.

The idea of muzzling the press and tying the tongues of the people of the South, after the manner of the suspicious tyrants and the Holy Inquisition of the Old World, he denounces as absurd. A people should be allowed to grumble who have suffered so much, and they would be unworthy the name of men if they did not respect the brave officers who have suffered with them, and honor the memory of their gallant dead who sleep on a hundred battle fields around their homes.

Dismal Swamp Canal Company.

In the Senate, Monday, the following joint resolution was passed:

Whereas the United States are interested in the Dismal Swamp Canal, connecting the Chesapeake with the sounds of North Carolina, by holding eight hundred shares of the stock of the Dismal Swamp Canal Company; and whereas the canal should be kept open as a navigable highway without further outlay on the part of the United States; therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to sell said stock at auction or otherwise, in such manner as will best protect the interest of the United States in said canal, and will insure that the same will be kept open as a sure navigable highway, without further expense to the Government, provided that the instruments and papers effecting such sale in the manner aforesaid shall be approved by the Atorney General before the delivery thereof.

From Washington,--Removals,--The Supreme Court Bill Signed.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The President is said to have determined to remove Isaac Newton, the present Commissioner of Agriculture, and John Defries, the Superintendent of the Government printing Office. Numerous applications for both vacancies have already been received.

The President has signed the bill providing that no vacancy in the office of associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States shall be filled by appointment till the number shall be reduced to six.

The Senate, on Monday, rejected the appointment of Gov. Holden, as Minister to San Salvador.

The Austrian consul in New York has opened a subscription for the benefit of his wounded countrymen.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald states that Secretary Stanton, whose resignation has been so often predicted, but has never taken place, is not to leave the Cabinet. He has promised, we are told, to come out squarely and unequivocally in support of the President's policy. His instruction to General Thomas, prohibiting him from interfering in political matters in Tennessee, is cited as evidence of the arrangement.

The man who objects to the adornment of Confederate graves would scarcely hesitate to violate them.—Prentice.

The engraver of the funny maps of the seat of war which appear in the New York Herald must have a bitter grudge against Bennett, for in Thursday's issue the map of Italy was covered with the most obscene and smutty words as the names of places.

Letter From General M. W. Ransom.

From the Weldon State.

NORTHAMPTON Co., N. C.,
July 7th, 1866.

MR. EDITOR: I have observed that my name has been presented in the newspapers and in some public meetings, in connection with the gubernatorial election, in this State; and, that my silence may not be misunderstood, I have thought it proper to declare that I cannot be a candidate for that office. I have come to this conclusion, from a deliberate conviction, that the agitation of a political contest at this time would do our State no good; its tendency would be to embitter party passion, to inflame and divide the people and to weaken the influence of the State. The people of North Carolina, and I may say, of the Southern States, ought now to be a unit. There should be no division, no distraction or alienation in our purposes or action. It will require all our strength, our whole united energy, to assist the patriotic men of the country in maintaining the principles of constitutional liberty and preserving to us the right of self-government. Certainly, this is no time to think of personal advancement or party aggrandizement. The office of Governor of North Carolina is a position of the highest honor, and the ambition of any man might well be gratified to attain it, but I cannot seek it through the discord of the people and at the sacrifice of public harmony.

The recollections of the past, our common trials and sufferings, the sight of our desolated country, every virtuous consideration that can appeal to honorable men, ought to reconcile all thoughts of division among ourselves and bind us all together as brothers of the same blood. I cannot consent that my name shall go before the people in this election. If my poor services were required by my State, if I could harmonize the popular sentiment of North Carolina, do anything to promote her interest or honor, to add to the happiness or pride of her noble people, if I could contribute to do justice to the memory of her gallant dead, to bind up the wounds and sorrows of her living patriots, to vindicate her fair fame before the world, I trust that no personal considerations could induce me to decline the effort. But such is not now the case. A political struggle, with its agitation and strife, crimination and acrimony, the triumph of one party, the defeat of another, the harrowing up of our domestic troubles and afflictions, with all the evils of a divided, disconcerted, alienated public mind, would not accomplish these objects, but might prove a curse to the State, from which she would not recover for years. Let not the shame of dissension rest upon the name of North Carolina. Let us sacrifice our differences in a common devotion to the good of the State, and once more be united, fraternal North Carolinians, grappling together and determined to discharge the whole duty of North Carolina to the country, to "support and defend" her rights as a State, and above all personal, party and political considerations, through defeat, disaster, and general calamity, to preserve her honor without reproach.

To the generous friends who have honored me with this expression of their confidence, I beg to return my sincere and grateful acknowledgements. Whatever may happen, I shall always cherish this testimony of their regard among the valued recollections of my life.

Very Respectfully,
M. W. RANSOM.

Congress---Rampant Radical Legislation---Confirmations by the Senate, &c.,---Congress to adjourn on Saturday.

WASHINGTON, July 25, P. M.

E. G. Ross, successor of Senator Lane, of Kansas, was sworn in, and also Fowler from Tennessee. The Committee have not reported upon the credentials of Mr. Patterson.

Both Houses have agreed to adjourn on Saturday.

The President has signed the bill reviving the grade of General in the U. S. army, and nominated Gen. Grant for the same; also Vice-Admiral Farragut as Admiral, under a recent law. These nominations, and that of A. W. Randall, as Postmaster General, were confirmed.

The House passed a resolution offered by Stevens, giving the Tennessee members pay from the commencement of the session. Messrs. Cooper and Leftwich were sworn in.

The amendatory national currency bill was postponed until next session.

Stevens presented a series of resolutions, professedly for a restoration of the Southern States to the Union; which was laid over until to morrow.

Banks, from the Committee on Foreign affairs, reported a bill recommending a modification of the neutrality laws, repealing the most stringent act of 1818, and modifying the penalties prescribed for its violation. It also provides that the law shall not be so construed as to prohibit the sale of vessels, ships, or steamers, or material or munitions of war, the growth or product of this country, to governments or citizens of any government not at war with the United States. Postponed until to-morrow.

An act passed the House amendatory of the act of 1789, establishing the Judicial Courts.—The amendment provides that the act of Habeas Corpus shall not apply to the case of any person, who is, or may be, held in custody of the military authorities of the U. S., charged with any military offence or with having aided or abetted rebellion against the government of the United States, prior to the passage of this act.

A bill was reported to restore possession of lands, confiscated by authority of the States lately in rebellion. It makes it the duty of the President, or commander of the military forces within the particular State or district, on complaint of any person dispossessed of property for adherence to the Union, to restore him to possession. Mr. Trimble denounced the bill as giving authority to military officers to decide legal questions as to the title of real estate. His motion to lay the bill on the table was rejected, and it passed.

The Senate confirmed Geo. B. Willman as collector of Customs at Beaufort, S. C; T. J. Meade, do, Natchez; L. V. B. Martin, Attorney for the Southern District of Louisiana; Jas. E. Steuart, do, Northern Mississippi, and J. S. Wilson Commissoner of the Land Office.

Its Effect is Miraculous!

IT is an entirely new scientific discovery combining many of the most powerful and restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom.

We have such confidence in its merits, and are so sure it will do all we claim for it that we offer if the Sicilian Hair Renewer does not give satisfaction in all cases when used in strict accordance with our instructions.

HALL'S

has proved itself to be the most perfect preparation for the Hair ever offered to the public.

It is a vegetable compound, and contains no injurious properties whatever.

It is not a Dye, it strikes at the roots and fills the glands with new life and coloring matter.

It will restore Gray Hair to its original Color.

It will keep the Hair from falling out.

It cleanses the scalp, and makes the Hair soft, lustrous and silken.

It is a splendid Hair-Dressing.

No person old or young, should fail to use it.

It is recommended and used by the first Medical authority.

☞ Ask for Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer and take no other.

MAGGIEL'S CHILLS AND FEVER PILLS!

Maggiel's Fever and Ague Pills!

MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE

PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St.,
New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

SOUTHERN FERTILIZING

COMPANY,

Richmond Va,

Colonel William Gilham,

(late Professor of Chemistry at the Virginia Military Institute,)

CHEMIST AND SUPERINTENDENT.

This COMPANY having placed in their works the most modern and approved MACHINERY, will be prepared on the FIRST OF AUGUST to furnish FERTILIZERS on an extensive scale, compounded under the immediate supervision of the eminent chemist named above.

They propose to offer for sale:

PURE PERUVIAN GUANO,

(warranted free from admixture,) ground and pulverized; thus avoiding for the farmer the necessity of breaking up the lumps, and not only saving him from loss by waste, but securing him uniformity and regularity in its application.

MANIPULATED GUANO

composed of pure Peruvian and Phosphatic Guano in equal proportions, finely ground and thoroughly incorporated.

OLD DOMINION GUANO,

composed of Peruvian and Phosphatic Guano, in combination with other ingredients, and containing four per cent. of ammonia.

PLASTER,

finely ground from the best Nova Scotia lump. None will be used not strictly adapted to agricultural purposes.

BONE DUST.

A large quantity of bones having been purchased, a constant supply of pure Bone Dust will be kept on hand.

This company commends itself to the patronage of the Southern agricultural community as a HOME INSTITUTION, under the management of one practically acquainted with Southern lands, and thoroughly competent to decide upon the best agents for their permanent improvement. Under his control the public have assurance that nothing will be offered them that is not of real and intrinsic value.

The undersigned, composing the above company, offer their personal guarantee, in connection with Colonel Gilham, that their Fertilizers shall be as represented.

Liberal arrangements will be made with commission merchants and grocers, who are invited to confer with the President (post office box 974.)

THE EMPIRE SHINGLE MACHINE.

IS acknowledged to be, by all odds, the best Shingle Machine in America With only ONE HORSE POWER

per hour are easily made. The machine is built entirely of Iron, very compact and easily transported. It works VENEERS, STAVES and BOX STUFF, and out of the same number of bolts of timber, one third more Shingles are made than can be done by the Sawing Machines. All the saw dust is saved by the Empire and goes into the Shingles.

NOTICE.

By virtue of a decree of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Johnston County, N. C., May Term, 1866, I will expose, at public Sale, on Tuesday the 29th. August 1866, (court week) at the Court House door, in Smithfield, in said County, on a credit of six months, the following Lands, viz:

One tract, containing about 800 Acres, and two thirds of another tract containing about 700 Acres, adjoining the above tract.

The said land runs within half a mile of the N. C. R. R., about five miles below Clayton Depot, on said road. It is Piney woods lands, and heavily timbered; about half of the first tract has never been boxed and only a small quantity of the large timber has been cut. Any one wishing to put up a Steam Saw Mill, or work Turpentine, could not find a better location.

Persons wishing to see the lands can do so, by calling on Mr. John Meanis, at Clayton or addressing me at Smithfield, N. C. Terms made known on day of sale.

JOHN W. HODGES, Executor of E. S. SANDERS Dec'd.
